

COMMUNITY NEWS

Send your Community News items to cnmetro@MyCentralJersey.com

For updates throughout the day,
visit us on the Web at

CentralJersey
.com

CRANFORD

UCC offers popular summer session

THIS SUMMER, Union County College is offering more than 350 credit classes in subjects that are transferable to almost any college program. Summer offerings include classes in English, business, economics, engineering, fine arts, history, sociology, chemistry, biology, psychology, physical education, geology, mathematics, physics, government, computers, foreign languages, criminal justice and accounting.

With variable starting dates that continue through July, and sessions that can be as short as three weeks or as long as 12, UCC affords students flexibility, with most courses taking place on Mondays through Thursdays.

Summer registration is underway. For more information, call 908-709-7518.

Staff report

ELIZABETH

More than $24K raised for agency

FRIENDS AND SUPPORTERS of Community Access Unlimited, or CAU, recently took to the links to help raise funds for the agency

UNION COUNTY

SUBMITTED PHOTO BY JIM LOWNEY/COUNTY OF UNION

Local agencies honored for fighting poverty

Union County Freeholder Bette Jane Kowalski (center) presents resolutions to representatives of community-based, social-service agencies fighting poverty on the local level in honor of "National Community Action Month." The organizations honored are Urban League of Union County, PROCEED, HomeFirst, Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Newark, The Arc of Union County, Brand New Day, Community Access Unlimited, Elizabethport Presbyterian Center, Jewish Family Services, Neighborhood Health Services Corp, United Family & Children's Society, Trinitas Regional Medical Center and the YMCA of Eastern Union County.

ation of Greater Middlesex County will welcome its new

SOMERVILLE

tuition available

Freeholder Bette Jane Kowal-